

Dr Margaret Wilkins
MB BS MSc FRCPath
Consultant Cellular Pathologist

Dr Margaret Wilkins qualified from the Royal Free Hospital, London in 1984, subsequently, she undertook her postgraduate training in Pathology at the Royal Free, Hammersmith and St Mary's Hospitals in London.

Dr Wilkins was appointed as a consultant cellular pathologist at Bedford Hospital in 1994 and was appointed as the head of the cellular pathology department in 2006.

Dr Wilkins is a general Histopathologist, however, she has a special interest in Colo-rectal pathology, providing pathology expertise in the multidisciplinary team, she is also the pathology lead for the Bowel Cancer Screening Programme.